

Meeting organised by the services of the European Commission

On the method to update existing energy label scales to reflect technological progress of the labelled products

Date: 19 February 2014, 9:00 – 13:00

Venue: Charlemagne building (Room De Gasperi) at 170, Rue de la Loi, Brussels.

Agenda

Registration (9:00 – 9:30)

- 1. Introduction by European Commission, DG Energy
- 2. Findings from the Energy Labelling Directive's Evaluation Study on the method to update existing energy label scales to reflect technological progress of the labelled products
(Ecofys and their consortium partners)
- 3. Results from testing a preliminary set of energy label designs
(London Economics / IPSOS)
- 4. Proposed energy label designs for further testing
(European Commission, DG Energy)
- 5. Questions of clarification

Coffee break

- 6. Public debate on the proposed energy label designs and on the method of testing them
(moderated by the European Commission, DG Energy)
- 7. Wrap up by European Commission, DG Energy